Labor Leaders' Meeting Postponed--More Signers for Uniformity Agreement.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 17.—The leaders for the miners have, for some unknown reason, abandoned the idea of having a meeting of the heads of the different labor organizations, to devise ways and means of battling with the adverse ruling of the court on the injunction proceedings against the miners, should the judges who heard the arguments yesterday decide to make the injunction permanent.

President Dolan says the meeting of the Union officers may be held Thursday, but it will be for another purpose.

The rumor is current that De Armitt has arranged for the importation of two hunnred foreign workmen Monday for the mines at Plum and Turtle Creek. De Armitt denies this. It is believed also that the New York Gas and Coal Company will give notice to all old employees that they are willing to employ them again, and should the strikers refuse to return to work they will then employ men who will work.

Securing signatures to the uniformity agreement is progressing favorably. In a few days the list will be ready for publication. About thirty operatives have signed thus far but the committee will not say whether any large operators are among them.

A MESSAGE FROM ANDREE.

The Intrepid Aeronaut Only 8 Degrees from the Pole.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 17.—The sealing ship, Alken, has been spoken in latitude 80 degress, 47 minutes north, and reports that one of the sailors shot an exhausted carrier pigeon. Tied between the bird's legs was a piece of paper bearing the following:

"To Afteonbladet: 82 degrees passed. Good journey northward.

"ANDREE."

This message was brought to Advent Bay August 11th by the Steamship Express, which was conveying the Lerner Polar expedition. Lerner spoke the Alken July 20th.

A CORNER ON BARLEY.

Syndicate Formed Catches Operators Short.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 17.—Operators here say that a wealthy syndicate has been formed in Chicago for the purpose of cornering barley. A number of operators have been caught short at thirty-two and are now paying ten cents more per bushel. The heavy rains that fell about harvest time greatly damaged the crop.

Murderers of W. C. Wilson Uuknown.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—The police are still groping in the dark for the murderers of W. C. Wilson, the wealthy miser, bookworm and librarian. He is believed to have been murdered in revenge because the robbers failed to find the rich booty that they expected.

He wore shabby clothes despite his reputed wealth, his chief interest being books.

Free Booters Hold Up a Train.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 17.—The southbound passenger train on the Santa Fe Railway was held up near Edmund, Oklahoma, early this morning. The robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to blow up the safe of the express company, and after securing a hundred dollars from the local safe escaped. The passengers were not molested.

Judge Jackson Still Enjoining.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va.—Judge Jackson issued two more injunctions against the striking miners today.

THE INEVITABLE COMMENCES.

Miners Growing Violent---Property Being Destroyed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Aug. 17.—According to reports coming in here trouble is likely to occur among the miners at Corinth, West Virginia. The trouble was precipitated by the release of three Italians who had been under arrest charged with threatening to blow up the mine and brick plant of the Oakland Coal Company.

Other strikers armed with guns went to the homes of six miners who had returned to work and destroyed their property. They fired at a Deputy United States Marshal who interfered. Great alarm is felt at the mines as to the outcome.

Canadian Boat Ahead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.—The Momo Glencairn the Second met today in the second of the races the Seawauhaka one rater cup. The Momo was the favorite this morning. The Canadian boat got a good start and is now well ahead.

Anarchist Angellilo Condemned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

MADRID, Aug. 16.—Michael Angellilo, who assassinated Premier Canovas del Castillo, was tried by court martial at Vergara yesterday. He was found guilty and condemned to death.

Prince Henri and The Pope.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Rome says that it is reported that the Pope will excommunicate Prince Henri and Count of Turin, as duelling is forbidden by the Roman Catholic Church.

Miners Gaining in West Virginia.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WHEELING, Aug. 17.—The miners have made great gains all along the line in this State today.

The Report Denied.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN, Aug. 17.—Secretary Porter pronounced the report sent out from Washington that Sherman had resigned, untrue.

Britishers Break the Law.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Word has reached the government authorities here that British steamers are landing passengers at Skagaway, instead of Dyea, in direct violation of law.

BOYD MAY BE PROMOTED.

May Succeed McKenna as Attorney General.

It is said to be current talk among prominent and reliable Republicans in Washington City that Col. James E. Boyd will soon become a member of McKinley's cabinet in the event of Justice Field's retirement from the supreme court bench next month.

Justice Field has already served for a longer period than any other supreme court judge in the history of our country and is entitled to retirement. He is eighty-one years old and strong in mind, though feeble in body.

If he retires Attorney General McKenna will probably be appointed to a seat on the supreme court bench and McKenna's office given to Boyd.

But the many "outs" and "ins" in politics may bring circumstances to bear that will change this program. The jovial Colonel's many friends in Greensboro, as well as in other parts of the country, would be glad to see him promoted.

Making an Improvement.

Smithdeal is re-arranging things in his store so that the barber shop can be moved to the front end of the store. He will have a partition placed in the middle of the store and put a door in place of his show window. He will then move his barber shop into one side of the front of the building and will use the other side and the rear for his store.

Dr. J. H. Lewis, the well known oculist of Raleigh, stopped over last night en route to Nashville. While here he examined the eyes of Paul Trogdon, son of S. L. Trogdon.

Lawn party tonight.

VOLUME REDUCED ONE-HALF.

GOVERNOR PINGREE WELCOMES THE DELEGATES.

Recommends a Double Standard---Bankers Lose Three Hundred and Forty Members.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

DETROIT, Aug. 17.—The American Bankers' Association opened its annual convention here this morning with delegates present from all parts of the United States. Governor Pingree, in welcoming the delegates, speaking of the currency, said that the demonetization of silver had reduced the available amount of primary money one-half; to remedy this state of affairs it is sought to effect an agreement among the nations whereby the unit of measure may again be in both silver and gold at a certain ratio. He further said that the use of gold in the arts would cause a stringency in the supply available for money and recommended that it be used sparingly except for monetary purposes. He favored more stringent laws to compel corporations to carry out honest obligations.

President Lowery, of the Association, congratulated the members on the triumph of gold at the late election, extolled the Indianapolis monetary conference and said if returning prosperity was not here it was on the way. The Association has lost 340 members by the new schedule of dues.

Minister of Justice of Italy.

ROME, Aug. 17.—Signor G. Costa, Minister of Justice, is dead. Shortly before he expired he sent a touching deathbed telegram of farewell to King Humbert. Marquis di Rudini, the Premier, will temporarily assume the portfolio.

Passing Students.

Quite a number of students have passed through today on their way to Guilford College and Oak Ridge Institute. Guilford opens today and Oak Ridge tomorrow. A dozen or more boys came up on the Raleigh train from the eastern part of the State, going to Oak Ridge.

Miss Kate Prescott, of Weldon, and the Misses Badger, of Raleigh, passed through the city yesterday en route to Worthville, to attend a house party at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Worth. Their brief stay in this city gave great pleasure to some of our young gentlemen, who were loth to see them take their departure. We know the stars will shine brighter and the birds sing sweeter in that section of old Randolph by their angelic presence.

Vuncanon & Co. have contracted for space in the columns of THE TELEGRAM, and will keep you posted on the many good things they have to offer. Read their ad on the first page.

Greensboro Council No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, instead of Thursday evening, on account of the celebration Thursday evening.

Miss Florence Heard, who has been visiting at W. M. Barbee's, left on the noon train for her home in Washington City yesterday. She is a young lady of most charming and pleasing manners and made many friends while here.

The committee on permanent location of the Red Springs Chatauqua reported that the time had not yet come for that step to be taken. The Chatauqua elected N. B. Broughton, president; I. W. Durham, vice president; J. C. Birdsong, secretary.

A carrier pigeon has been shot bearing the following message: "Eighty-two degrees passed. Good journey Northward. Andree." No date could be ascertained.

Richard Croker has refused to take charge of the Democratic forces in the mayorality race in New York. John C. Sheehan will probably be continued in charged.

An anarchist cut his way out of a police station at Pittsburg through a guard of fifteen policemen; he slashed five of them with a razor and had to be shot and clubbed before he could be retaken.

HEAD END COLLISION.

The Southern's Train Meets With Trouble Near Chatanooga.

A head-end collision occurred on the Southern Railway near Ooltewah Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock between freight No. 72, bound for Knoxville, and a work train standing on the main line, three and a half miles beyond the town named.

John Mulkey, of Cleveland, Tenn., track supervisor for that division, jumped and sustained several injuries, none of which will cause him much trouble.

Foreman Lawson, of McDonald, Tenn., also jumped and had one of his legs broken.

No one else was hurt.

It appears that the slag, or work train, was standing on the main line track at a switch, three and a half miles the other side of Ooltewah, when freight train No. 72 thundered around a curve at a good rate of speed.

Engineer L. C. Lawson, of the freight train, discovered the motionless train, but it was too late to avaid a collision. He turned off the steam, applied the brakes, after which he and his fireman jumped. Engineer Chris Owens, of the slag train, and his fireman also leaped from their engine before the crash came.

The two engines came together with considerable force, demolishing the pilots, headlights and other front rigging of both locomotives. Both remained on the track, while six cars were damaged.

The injured men were on the work train, and seeing that a collision was inevitable leaped from the cars.—Chattanooga Times.

Still at Large.

The A. C. L. flagman, an account of whose murder was given in THE TELEGRAM yesterday evening, was W. J. Blackwell. The blood hounds that were put upon the trail of the murderer followed the trail about eight miles and then lost it.

Later a suspicious character was seen on the railroad between Dunn and Fayetteville, who being approached broke and ran through the woods. Blood hounds were soon put on the trail and he was pursued some fifteen miles, swimming Cape Fear river and two creeks in his flight. A rain, however, destroyed the track and the pursuit had to be abandoned.

Another Excursion.

The Methodist Sunday School will run an excursion from Reidsville to Raleigh on next Sunday, Aug. 24. The train will leave Greensboro at 8:20. The fare for the round trip is one dollar and twenty-five cents, including a free dinner.

DEATH OF SENATOR GEORGE.

In the death of Senator George, of Mississippi, another of the old Guard has passed from the scene. One by one these representatives of the old South, Southerners above all else, are dropping away. A remarkable type of men: men tried on the field of battle and not found wanting, and honored afterward with the highest gifts in the power of their States, they stood as representatives of a life and traditions that are passing, or have passed, like the flitting of shadows. No other nation has ever produced a similar type nor has any other section of ours ever done so. We shall not "look upon their likes again." New circumstances, new fordes, new men; with these lie our future. Shall it advantage us? These men made the South great in peace, terrible in war and respected even in defeat. The least that the South can do is to pause a moment in her onward march to murmur a "peace to his ashes," when one of these old Romans drops in his harness. With no apology for the faults of any, she may say of each, "this was a man."

FOR once a French duel has turned out something more than a farce. The Prince of Orleans and Count of Turin really showed a spirit that was manly, whatever we may think of duelling as a practice. It is a poor comment upon a civilization, doubtless, that men should stand up and poke holes in each other with rapiers, but it is infinitely worse when they stand up and pretend to poke, yet are afraid to. Meantime let us not have any talk about such being impossible in this glorious country; we have a glorious country, of course, but we also have a great deal more disgraceful affairs than this Paris duel—and they happen right here in our own State. The moralist need not take unto himself the wings of the morning and go three thousand miles to find a text. We are told that people who live in a certain style of house should not make stone throwing a steady occupation. The oculist will look after the mote in our brother's eye.

DR. SPENCER, of Washington City, in a paper read before the convention of American Scientists in Chicago, said it was only a question of time when the rising of the lakes would overwhelm the city. Chicago has needed a bath for some time and it is good to know that she will get it on such an extensive scale.

THE labor of promulgating injunctions against the strikers has been so severe that Judge Jackson had to take a vacation. If the Judge had seen fit to prolong that vacation indefinitely the loss to the American bench would not have been irreparable.

AN exchange relates how a "large number of bank notes were baked until the numbers could be revealed only by photography." We had thought that all the men with bank notes were "freezing onto" them.

SENATOR Stewart, of Nevada, is, for once, sorry that his mouth went off. He should comfort himself with the assurance that he now has a bond of sympathy with the American people.

THE Yale Athletic Association will spend $12,000 on its football gridiron. If it will now lay out an equal amount on its football manners the country will applaud the investment.

THE people up on lake Champlain are going to give a dance in honor of the President. Now that is what we call carrying coals to new castle. People have been leading him a dance ever since the fourth of last March.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

Salisbury is to have a gymnasium and shooting gallery.

George Harrison, a young boy in Raleigh, was seriously scalded this morning.

The latest report shows 220 cotton, woolen and silk mills in North Carolina.

Geo. S. Powell has been appointed receiver of the First National Bank of Asheville.

The State Farmers' Alliance has appropriated $6,600 to the new shoe factory and tannery.

The police committee of Raleigh has reported in favor of reinstating Chief of Police Norwood.

The negro guard who allowed the five convits to escape from the penitentiary has been dismissed.

Two negroes in Wadesboro fought an impromptu duel with pistols last night, one being shot in the neck.

It is announced that Butler is after the scalp of Harry Skinner and that State Senator Moye is to be the opposing candidate.

A fine portrait of the late Senator Vance was presented to the Vance Democratic club of Asheville at its meeting last night.

The regular civil service examination for storekeepers, guagers, clerks, etc., will be held at Asheville and Statesville September 18th.

The trial of the five men who whitecapped Rev. Jones, of color, at Oberlin, has been again postponed, because Jones could not get a lawyer to represent him.

Wm. R. Evans, just returned from Panama, tells the Asheville Citizen that nearly nine-tenths of the people who go there from a cold climate die of fever.

John L. Milan, the absconding Seaboard Air Line ticket agent of Charlotte, has been arrested in Morristown, Tenn. He will be brought to Charlotte tonight.

Charlotte's new court house will be christened October 4th. Judge Hoke will preside on that occasion and a program will be arranged by the Charlotte bar.

Senator Butler, in his speech yesterday at Concord, scored the president of some educational institution for receiving money from rich men, but used no names.

The Stone Mountain railroad from Winston to Taylorsville, chartered by the last legislature, will be built by convicts, 200 having been secured for that purpose.

The Railroad Commission has ordered the train leaving Raleigh at 2 a. m. for Greensboro, to wait for Seaboard vestibule which reaches there at 2:20. This order takes effect after September 1st.

A true bill has been found against the negro Brodie, on trial at Henderson for assault and it is said that no further attempt will be made to lynch him. Considerable feeling prevails but all is quiet and orderly.

Feeling between the citizens of Southern Pines and the country people is growing very bitter over the no-fence law. The country cattle come into town and are empounded and the country people kick when compelled to pay for getting them out.

Judge Simonton has issued an order restraining the Railroad Commission from carrying into effect the order reducing the charges of the Western Union from 25 to 15 cents. The Postal company has also excepted to the order of the Commission.

WONDERFUL CHILD PREACHER

ELEVEN YEARS OLD AND BEEN PREACHING FOUR YEARS.

The Colored Girl Preacher Proclaims the Gospel to a Large Congregation of White People.

Yesterday evening at 7 o'clock the court room was filled to suffocation by a seething mass of humanity to hear the wonderful preaching of the more wonderful child preacher—Claretta Nora Avery.

The hour for preaching had been set at 7 o'clock in order that the child might go over to Bethel A. M. E. church and preach to the people of her own race.

By the time for the services to begin every seat in the court room was filled, and all the standing room in the aisles had been taken, but the crowd continued to come until the lobby around the court room was full and the stair-steps bore up their weight of humanity.

The child had been requested to preach this special sermon to white people, and they were there—the old and the young, the great and the small, the rich and the poor.

Quite a number of those present had doubtless come as they would go to a circus or a theatre, with no thought of the solemnity of the occasion—that it was the service of God they were attending.

After singing by the colored choir (which was splendid) and an earnest, fervent prayer by Claretta. The mother of the child introduced her to the congregation. She stated that her daughter was born in Washington, D. C., eleven years ago and had been preaching four years. She has preached in various Northern and Southern States, and bears letters of recommendation from ministers, both white and colored, of the several towns and cities in which she has preached. The Lord saw fit to bless the child, her mother said, with the Spirit and make her sensible of her conversion when only a mere baby. The little girl has no education, except what little her mother has taught her. She has gone half through the old blue-back speller and through the first reader. She prepares no sermon, speaking only what the Lord directs her to say.

The girl then arose to read a Scripture lesson and announcce her text. In appearance she looks as any ordinary intelligent colored girl of 11 or 12 years of age. She is well built, of rather light complexion, with a mass of jet black hair. Her voice is wonderfully strong and clear for one of her years.

Claretta read the first twelve verses of the fourth chapter of St. Matthew, which tells of the devil's temptation of Christ after he had been fasting forty days. Her text was taken from a portion of the first verse—"Led up by a Spirit."

The child followed no deep line of thought nor made any theological discussion, but branched out into an exhortation to Christians to allow themselves to be led by the soft and gentle wooings of Christ's Holy Spirit. She went on to speak of the celestial city that shall be our eternal dwelling place if we permit ourselves to be led by the "good spirit." She dwelt but little on the horrors that hang around the second death, her mind seeming to be fixed on the pearly gates and golden streets of the New Jerusalem, through which flows the river of life.

She told of her personal experience when the glorious light of the gospel first shone upon her soul. She says she was only one year and a half old at the time of her conversion, but remembers it distinctly. Why or how it was that God saw fit to bless her at this tender age she could not tell. She saw no great wonder nor had any visible manifestation of the visitation of God's holy spirit, but was conscious of the fact when she first felt a new love burning on the altar of her heart. She closed by asking for the prayers of those present that she might hold out faithful to the end.

We hardly think it necessary along this line to resort to divine inspiration to explain her peculiar powers. It is probably an instance like "Blind Tom" in music, and the numerous mathematical prodigies that appear from time to time, of abnormal developments accentuated, perhaps, by the accidents of heredity, along a particular line. Claretta Avery has a remarkable facility for words just as the others have for music or figures.

Just before the benediction was pronounced a collection amounting to $4.52 was taken for the little girl. It strikes that this was rather a small sum to come from so large a crowd, though, of course, it was extremely difficult to take a collection in such a dense gathering. Some contributed small amounts as they passed out, though we did not learn the amount procured at the door.

Rev. J. Walter Malone, principal of the Bible Training School, Cleveland, O., will preach at Friends church, Tuesday the 17th, at 8 p. m. All are warmly invited.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 17, '97.

Evangelist J. W. Lee preached to a crowded house last night. He preached with great power and his words found lodgment in the hearts of his hearers. While his preaching was not of an exciting nature, yet it was very impressive and caused much emotion, and several found peace with Christ as their Savior.

Annis Wheeler, Will Cox and Leslie Cartland, left this morning for Guilford College.

J. H. West, Greensboro's popular excursion man, was here this morning billing the town for his excursion which leaves for Asheville tomorrow.

Among the traveling men we noticed at the depot this morning Messrs. B. L. Reuben, of Greensboro, and D. Boyd Kimbell, of Charlotte.

Several of our young people attended the "Merry Party" at Archdale camp last night. They all report a most enjoyable evening. The young people of Archdale are noted for their very pleasant sociables and it is always a pleasure to be honored with an invitation.

They Forgot.

During a portion of the services by the child preacher at the court house last night there was more noise than necessary, just outside the door, principally. We know it is difficult for everybody to keep quiet in such a crowd, but we are afraid that some present last night forgot they were attending divine services. It was doubtless thoughtlessness.

Dr. Ivey at Charlotte.

Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., was in Charlotte Sunday and preached two of his characteristic sermons to the Methodists of that city. The Observer has the following:

"Rev. Dr. Ivey, of Greensboro, preached two strong sermons at Trinity Methodist church Sunday. He was heard by large and delighted congregations."

Orphans Next Friday Night.

Show your appreciation of the efforts made by the little orphans by attending their concert at the Academy next Friday night, the 20th. They are delighting the people wherever they go by their sweet voices. If you can't go buy a ticket and help the fatherless ones. Admission, adults, 25 cents; children 10 cents.

Lightning Strikes a Church.

The Winston papers say that lightning struck the new Moravian church at Advance, five miles from Winston, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A number of shingles and considerable weatherboarding and plastering were torn off.

The lightning struck during services, though no one was hurt.

Don't forget the lawn party at Mrs. Ballard's tonight.

To Come to Greensboro.

Revenue Collector Harkins, of Asheville, has appointed James H. White, of Madison county, to the place of Deputy Collector attached to the revenue agent's force with headquarters at Greensboro.

Mr. White will probably come to Greensboro in a few days. He is an ex-sheriff of Madison county. The office to which he has been appointed pays $1,200 a year.

Charles L. Hopkins, formerly traveling passenger agent of this division of the Southern Railway, but who is now the Southern's representative in San Francisco, passed through this morning en route to Washington, D. C.

The Reidsville baseball team passed through this morning on their way to Concord, where they play ball today.
